

JUDGEMENT &
CRITICAL THINKING

You tend to gain a balanced view by not jumping to conclusions before making a decision. You make a risk assessment and also examine your needs and wants before acting on them. You view things objectively.

What are the signs of good critical thinking?

What type of jobs might suit a person who tends to make good judgements?

What advantage is there in critical thinking and good judgement?

Make a plan to increase your critical thinking!

This is a situation where it would be helpful to also look at opposing views:

This is what I can do to make better judgements (e.g. take time out to look at the risks involved):

This is when and where it would be helpful to assess whether something is worth the risk:
