

PERSPECTIVE

You have a wisdom and an understanding which help you to develop a balanced view and see things in the right context. Other people might look to you to help solve their problems through your experience and ability to see the bigger picture.

What are the signs of having perspective?

What type of jobs might suit a person who has perspective and sees the bigger picture?

What advantage is there in having perspective in life?

Make a plan to increase your perspective!

This is a situation where it would be helpful to have perspective:

This is what I can do to gain greater perspective (e.g. study or listen to a variety of people etc.):

This is when and where I could do that:
